

A Psalm of Thanksgiving
Psalm 100

I. How to give thanks to the Lord. Psalm 100:1-2

Here within five short verses of Psalm 100, the psalmist is communicating that the Lord is the _____ source of blessing; so, He is completely deserving of our thanksgiving and praise.

- "If we are a complaining, doubtful, and discouraged people, we are not a thankful people, and we _____ in the call to draw "all the earth" in giving thanks." (VanGemeren)

Serving the Lord is also an act of worship; we tell the Lord what He is _____ to us, by our acts of service for Him.

- Singing is not the only way to worship the Lord; but, it is certainly an _____ part of worshipping the Lord.

II. The Lord is creator. Psalm 100:3

"But who is the Lord? What is His character? Does He have adequate _____ to be my shepherd, my manager, my owner?" (Keller)

- "Restores my soul" demonstrates the _____ of a lost person who will come to Jesus for Salvation.

David describes the Lord's provision and goodness He prepares for those who love Him. What the Lord has waiting for us in heaven is amazing; but, He wants us to have _____ now.

III. Thankful for the Lord. Psalm 100:4

Just as the Lord's glory was revealed in the Old Testament tabernacle; so, He revealed His _____ in the Lord Jesus Christ.

- Entering into His gates and courts is an invitation into the very _____ of God Himself, and again the psalmist tells us to enter into His presence with thanksgiving.

"We do not add anything to Him when we bless Him, yet we worship Him as our appropriate _____ to His greatness and His love for us."

IV. Some reasons to thank Him. Psalm 100:5

"The God of the Bible is and has _____ been good." (Boice)

- God's ultimate _____ is shown within His plan to redeem us.

"So long as we are receivers of mercy we must be _____ of thanks."

(Spurgeon)
