1 Corinthians 7:17-28

I. As you were called. 1 Corinthians 7:17-20

God in His sovereignty has saved you at the perfect moment in time, in the current situation you were in, to be used for His _____, for your good and for the good of others.

- “Jesus Christ alone is sufficient for our _____ spiritual need, for all of God’s _____ is in Him.” (Warren Wiersbe)

II. Vocational change. 1 Corinthians 7:21-24

This doesn't mean a person cannot desire other things in life; but, this is speaking of contentment and serving the Lord where you are at the time of salvation until the Lord _____ you.

- When the Lord calls us to move and then we _____, we are out of the will of God. When He tells us to wait, and if we move _____ anyway; we are also out of the will of God.
1. If the job where you currently work is _____ or completely carnal in nature, the Lord probably wants you to leave.
  2. If the job where you currently work is not challenging or _____ your gifts and talents, the Lord may move you.
  3. A better job offer can be the Lord's way of _____ you.

III. Being single has its advantages. 1 Corinthians 7:25-28

Paul is speaking to the never-married person and recommends they _____ unmarried in order to be available to all the Lord has for them to do as a single person.

- However, marriage provides _____, helps with loneliness and can provide physical satisfaction as well.

vs. 28, “This did not mean that nobody should get married; but those who do marry must be ready to _____ the trials that will accompany it.” (Wiersbe)

IV. Practical Application.

If you can learn how to wait on God's timing on when to move and when not to move, you will end up _____ in His economy and that is all that really matters.
